

WORLD CONFERENCES ON RESEARCH INTEGRITY

To whom it my concern

CONVIN was the PCO (Professional Conference Organizer) for the 8th World Conference on Research Integrity in Athens. They helped us from the start to make the conference a success and took care amazingly well of all practicalities. We are very grateful for their profound professionalism and high level of service.

What struck us most was the friendliness and genuine willingness to help from the CONVIN staff members we worked with. Especially the contributions by Georgia Kateriniou, Alkis Polyrakis, Lambrini Gkogkou and Maria Priniotaki were invaluable and were essential to make the 8th WCRI a great success.

Kind regards,
